

Inviting proposals for International Series of Indological Publications

Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan invites proposals from scholars outside India for publication of critical editions of manuscripts of Sanskrit texts/ learned works/monographs under its International Publication series. All disciplines under Sanskrit studies will be covered under this scheme. Texts will be published both in electronic and printed forms.

Proposals for bringing out Indian editions of standard research works or critical editions of Sanskrit texts published in countries other than India will also be considered.

Prof. Radhavallabh Tripathi will be the general editor of the series of International Publications. He will appoint an editor for each volume if required. The names of the general editor of the series and the editor of the volume (if required) will be printed only on the second inner cover of each title.

Proposals should accompany complete soft copy of the manuscript with a brief CV of the editor/author. The editor/author should also furnish the following undertaking: "This is to certify that the manuscript..... is my own work and it has not been submitted elsewhere for publication in India and I will not publish an Indian edition otherwise in case the manuscript is accepted for publication by the Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan."

Payment of royalty amount will be made as per the contract drawn with the author/editor

Complete proposals should be submitted in soft copies on the e-mail as
