Subject:- Need for conducting Orientation Courses on Sanskrit Composing, Proof Reading, Editing and Manuscriptology,

Under the scheme for Development of Sanskrit Education, 2007, there are nine different schemes which includes a scheme for providing financial assistance to the registered Academic Organizations to conduct Vocational Training Courses to the students of Tradition Sanskrit Pathshalas/Institutions (Para 8 of the scheme document).

Though these Organizations have been seeking financial assistance from the Sansthan under the Scheme, but only few of them approach Sansthan, for financial assistance, for conducting Orientation Courses in the employment generating areas like Sanskrit Composing, Proof Reading, Editing and Manuscriptology. As a result, students, who have adequate Sanskrit background, are deprived of exposure to such a professional Courses. Thus, such Sanskrit students remain in a disadvantageous position vis-à-vis to the general students.

Needless to say that concerned Institutions are always on the look out for students with Sanskrit Knowledge in these areas, But, when they do not find trained Sanskrit students, they are forced to take non-Sanskrit students.

The Sansthan will, therefore, welcome proposals from the registered Academic Organizations for short-term Orientation Courses, under this Scheme, in the areas of Sanskrit Composing, Proof Reading Editing and Manuscriptology, as this would not only enlarge the employment possibilities of Sanskrit Institutions but also provide the properly trained personnel to take up the jobs in the Institutes which are in need of such trained persons.

The details of this Scheme are available in the Sansthan's website:, www.sanskrit.nic.in.
