

REPORT

KOUMADI MAHOTSAVA-2009

Seventh Drama Festival Koumadimahotsava was inaugurated on 10th November, 2009 at Pyarelal Bhawan in Delhi. After candle lighting, students of Sringeri Campus presented Vedichents. Then the Chief guest of inaugural function Chief Minister Smt. Sheila Dixit was welcomed by Smt. Anita Bhatnagar Jain, Joint Secretary (Languages), M/o H.R.D., Govt. of India.

Hon'ble Prof. Radhavallabh Tripathi, Vice-Chancellor, Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan, New Delhi formally welcomed all the guests, scholars and participants. He informed the audience that all those Mays written by Kalidasa were/will be presented in these two years. Smt. Anita Bhatnagar Jain expressed her felling that It was a matter of pride that Sansthan is doing all his best effort to promote Sanskrit through Sanskrit plays.

Chief Minister Smt. Sheila Dixit welcomed this idea to have Sanskrit play festival every year. She said that this will not only improve Delhi but to whole nation also. Sanskrit is hidden pressure for all. Now a days it shows that way to scientist to explore space.

Prof. Pankaj Chande, Vice-Chancellor, Kavi kulaguru Sanskrit University, Ramtek Nagpur individually extended his heartfelt thanks to Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan who was organizing this festival.

Registrar Prof. Ramanuja DEVNATHAN gave thanks to all who were presents in that session.