1. AN OVERVIEW

1.1. Role and functions

Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan now functioning as Deemed University was established in October, 1970 as an autonomous organisation registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 (Act XXI of 1860) for the development and promotion of Sanskrit all over the country. It is fully funded by Government of India since its inception. It functions as an apex body for the propagation and development of Sanskrit and assists the Ministry of Human Resource Development in formulating and implementing various plans and schemes for the development of Sanskrit studies. It has assumed the role of a nodal body for the effective implementation of various recommendations made by the Sanskrit Commission set up by the Government of India, Ministry of Education in 1956 concerning the preservation, propagation and development of Sanskrit language and education in all its aspects.

Keeping in consideration of Sansthan's high value works in the field of promotion and propagation of traditional Sanskrit education, outstanding publications of unpublished Sanskrit texts, preservation and procurement of over 50,000 rare Sanskrit manuscripts, Govt. of India has accorded it the status of Deemed University w.e.f. 7th May, 2002 vide Notification No. F.9-28/2000-U.3 followed by U.G.C.'s Notification No.F.6-31/2001(CPP-I) dated 13th June, 2002.

Prof. Vempaty Kutumba Sastry held the office of Vice Chancellor and Dr. C.Giri held the post of Registrar of the Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan during the period under report.

The major objectives of the Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan as indicated in the Memorandum of Association are to propagate, develop and encourage Sanskrit learning and research and in pursuance thereof;

(a) To undertake, aid, promote, coordinate research in all branches of Sanskrit learning including teachers training and manuscriptology, to bring out inter-linkage with the out come of modern research in the contextually relevant fields and to bring out publications.

- (b) To establish, take over and administer Kendriya Sanskrit Campuses in the various parts of the country and to associate with any other institutions with similar objectives.
- (c) To serve as a Central administrative machinery for the management of all the Kendriya Sanskrit Campuses established or taken over by and to provide effective coordination in their academic work in order to facilitate the interchangeability and migration of staff, students and research scholars and national division of work among the Campuses in specialized fields.
- (d) To act as nodal agency for Govt. of India to implement their policies and programmes for the development of Sanskrit.
- (e) To provide for instruction and training in such branches of learning as it may deem fit.
- (f) To provide for research and for the advancement of/and dissemination of knowledge.
- (g) To undertake extra mural studies, extension programmes and field outreach activities to contribute to the development of society.
- (h) To do all such other acts and things as may be necessary or desirable to further the objectives of the Institute.

1.2 Programmes and Activities

For the realisation of its objectives, the Sansthan has undertaken the following major programmes and activities:-

Learners at these centres exhibited great enthusiasm. Students, teachers, professors, doctors, engineers, bankers, industrialists, officers, lawyers, scientists, farmers and house wives etc. were the beneficiaries of the programme.

As a result of opening of N.F.S.E. centres throughout India, people have become familiar with Sanskrit and the cultural heritage of India. People from all walks of the society evinced great zeal for learning Sanskrit. Grand inauguration and valedictory functions were organised at various centres. Study materials of Prathama Deeksha & Dwitiya Deeksha prepared by Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan were the main base of teaching Sanskrit at their respective centres. The study materials were rated as excellent by the learners. Certificates of participation were awarded at the end of the Prathama/Dwitiya Deeksha to those students who had either attended minimum 75% of their classes or who had passed the examination conducted by their local centres.

These Non Formal Sanskrit Education Centres were not only conducted in cities and metropolitan cities of the country, but they were also conducted in remote small villages, small towns, difficult accessibility areas of Jammu & Kashmir and North-East states. Sanskrit teachers had to come from far off places also. The centres were at Universities, Degree Colleges, Inter Colleges, High and Higher Secondary Schools, Junior High Schools, Public Schools and Voluntary Organisations throughout the country. The results are very encouraging.

For the proper functioning of these centres, State Coordinators were nominated in the States on receipt of proposals regarding centres, centre coordinators and teachers from respective States. Approval for centres was also accorded by the Sansthan on direct proposals received from Institutions of repute/importance.

Affiliation to Institutions

The Sansthan had started with a few Campuses but later some privately managed institutions were affiliated. The list of institutions affiliated to the Sansthan is given at Annexure E. Details of the Governments and Universities which have given recognition to the Sansthan's examinations are placed at Annexures F and G respectively.

4.5 ADMINISTRATION SECTION

The Administration section in the Headquarters Office of the Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan is performing its functions of house keeping in accordance with rules, regulations and procedure. It also provides necessary establishment support to the various constituent Campuses of the Sansthan for their effective and efficient functioning. This branch mainly deals with general administration, establishment matters, services and supplies, acquisition of land & building, establishment of new campuses and conducting meetings of Board of Management and Finance Committee.

Efforts have been made to acquire land for the construction of buildings for Campuses which do not have their own buildings. Construction of the building of Jammu Campus is completed and next academic session is likely to start functioning in the new Campus. Puri Campus has started functioning in its newly constructed building. In addition, second stage construction of Boys and Girls Hostels, Library and minimum Staff Quarters etc. at Jammu, Jaipur, Sringeri, Lucknow, Puri and Guruvayoor campuses is in progress.

Sectionwise working strength of the staff in Headquarters office of the Sansthan during the year under report is placed at Annexure-H.

6. SCHEMES

The Sanskrit Commission appointed by the Government of India in 1956, have recommended that help and patronage should be extended to important active private academies and bodies which are working for the popularisation of Sanskrit in their respective regions.

In pursuance thereof, the Govt. of India has introduced different schemes for the promotion of Sanskrit by way of extending financial assistance to the applicants falling under respective schemes. These schemes were previously undertaken by the Ministry of H.R.D., Govt. of India but in the past, these have been transferred to the Sansthan for their execution and implementation on the recommendations of duly constituted Grants in Aid Committee. These schemes are described hereunder:

6.1 FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE TO VOLUNTARY SANSKRIT ORGANISATIONS, INSTITUTIONS AND PATHASHALAS FOR PROMOTION OF SANSKRIT

Scope

Under this scheme financial assistance is given to the organisations/institutions/individuals to continue and/or to expand their activities or break fresh grounds in the field of propagation and development of Sanskrit. Such activities may relate to any one or more of the following purposes:-

- (a) To set up new institutions/pathashalas and /or to maintain develop institutions/pathashalas;
- (b) Running Sanskrit teaching classes;
- (c) Training and appointing Sanskrit pracharkas;
- (d) Setting up, running or strengthening of Sanskrit libraries and reading rooms;

- (k) Construction of building, repairs of building or expansion of building;
- (l) Organising approved Sanskrit Conventions;
- (m) Research in Sanskrit;
- (n) Any other activity which may be found conducive to the enrichment, propagation and development of Sanskrit.

The Sansthan's assistance for an approved scheme is subject to a maximum of 75% of the total expenditure involved in its implementation. In case of building projects, however, the grant is limited to 50% of the approved expenditure or Rs. 50,000/- whichever is less. In special cases, the limit of Rs. 50,000/- may be exceeded with the approval of Ministry of Finance.

EXTENT OF ASSISTANCE

All requests for financial assistance are entertained (except in the case of publication projects) through the state Governments on the prescribed application form meant for the purpose. Requests for grants from organisations of All India character may be received directly by the Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan. It will, however, be open to the Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan to entertain applications directly in special cases. All requests for financial assistance are considered on merit and grant is sanctioned for approved items of work only. In cases of applications from organisations/ institutions other than those of All India character received direct, the views of State Governments can be invited whenever considered necessary.

Grants may be made in instalments depending on the nature of the project to be undertaken and the progress of the work.

properly managed or that the sanctioned money is not being utilised for approved purposes, the payment of the grant may be stopped.

8. The organisation must be open to all citizens of India without distinction of caste, creed or race. No capitation or any other fees should be charged from people belonging to State other than the one in which the organisation is situated.
9. It will be binding on the organisation to carry out the directions and suggestions given by the Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan/ Government of India with regard to the work for which the grant has been sanctioned. The organisation shall supply the Sansthan with any informatin or clarification on any point which the Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan may require, within time specified by the Sansthan.
10. No foreigner from outside India will be invited by the organisation without the prior approval of the Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan/ Government of India.

Details of Statewise number of Voluntary organisations granted financial assistance on the basis of receipt of requests during the year 2006-07 is placed at Annexure—I.

6.2 ALL INDIA SANSKRIT ELOCUTION CONTEST

The Sansthan organises an All India Sanskrit Elocution Contest every year in different parts of the country to encourage traditional Sanskrit students in extempore speech in Shastraic Sanskrit language. Competitions of SAMASYAPURTI are also organised. Each State Govt./ Union Territory Govt. is requested to send the names of eight participants along with one teacher for the contest in eight Shastraic subjects. The best contestants in every event are awarded a medal & certificate along with cash prizes of Rs. 2000/-, Rs. 1500/- and Rs. 1000/- in order of merit i.e. 1st, 2nd and 3rd respectively. In addition to these prizes; medals are also awarded amongst the winners. The prize money for SHLOKANTYAKSHARI has been revised to Rs. 7000/ Rs. 5000/- and Rs. 3000/- as 1st, 2nd and 3rd prize. Grant of these revised award amounts were made applicable from the year 2005-06.

In addition to existing ten events the "Shastra Shalaka Pariksha" is also organised.

The nature of the contest is taken from ancient tradition of Shastra Shikshan Paddhati of India where student has to have the whole text with its commentary in his memory and is expected to narrate and explain from the point revealed by a "Rajat Shalaka". The aim of this tough contest is to revive the tradition as well as to sharpen memory of student.

During the year 2006-07, the contest was organised at Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan (Deemed University) Shri Sadashiv Campus, Puri. The panel of judges adjudged the State of Karnataka at first position.

6.3 SHASTRA CHUDAMANI SCHEME

Scheme for utilization of services of Eminent Literary Scholars in Campuses of the Sansthan, Adarsh Sanskrit Pathshalas and other State Government run Sanskrit Colleges and Voluntary Sanskrit Organisations.

Objective

The object of the scheme is to preserve the indepth study of various shastraic subjects in Sanskrit at the various centres where traditional system of Sanskrit education is being imparted to students. While in the ancient days, the system of education envisaged a full time association of the teacher and taught for a period of about 12 years minimum and they had enough time to cover the various intricate Shastraic subjects in all details and the students had the opportunity to acquire mastery over particular subject in a comprehensive manner. In the recent past, the modern system of education, having prescribed syllabus for a limited period with selection from text-books, has influenced the Sanskrit education system as well and as a result even Sanskrit subject where students are supposed to have specialised at the post graduate level, due to shortage of time available, there is no scope for teaching the higher texts in detail and in full. As a result the products of this system, though they are quite proficient in the basic tenets of their subjects are lacking in indepth and exhaustive knowledge of the higher treatises written in these subjects.

Soon after they passed out of the post-graduate level, domestic needs compel them to enter into a of the dictionary have been brought out. The work on 8th volume is in progress. The project was primarily financed by Govt. of India and to some extent by Govt. of Maharashtra. During the year 2006-07, a sum of Rs.34 lakh was released to Sanskrit Dictionary Project by the Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan.

6.6 SCHEME OF THE PRESIDENTIAL AWARD OF CERTIFICATE OF HONOUR TO SANSKRIT, PALI/PRAKRIT, ARABIC AND PERSIAN SCHOLARS

The Scheme of Award for 'Certificate of Honour' was introduced in 1958 to honour the scholars of Sanskrit, Arabic and Persian languages. The scheme was extended to cover Pali/Prakrit in 1996. The distinction is conferred once a year on Independence Day in recognition of substantial contribution of the scholars in their respective fields. This scheme envisages a monetary grant of Rs. 50,000/- annually for life, apart from a Sanad and a Shawl presented by the President to each scholar.

Under the Scheme there are 15 awards for Sanskrit, 3 each for Arabic and Persian and one for Pali/Prakrit.

Proposals for these Awards are invited from the following every year :

- (a) The Chief Secretaries of all State Governments.
- (b) The Education Secretaries of all State Governments/Union Territories.
- (c) The Vice Chancellors of all Indian Universities and Deemed Universities.
- (d) Principals of all Kendriya Sanskrit Vidyapeethas.
- (e) Chairman of Adarsh Sanskrit Pathashalas.
- (f) All awardees of Certificates of Honour with the request to recommend only two names.
- (g) All Ministries/Departments of Government of India.

The recommendations are first of all scrutinised by a Preliminary Selection Committee which is approved by the HRM. The members are very renowned scholars in their respective fields.

The recommendations made by the Preliminary Selection Committee are then submitted to HRM, Prime Minister and then finally to the President of India for approval.

In addition to it, young scholars of Sanskrit, Pali/Prakrit, Arabic and Persian are also honoured by the President of India with Badarayana Vyasa Samman for their excellent contribution to the promotion of the languages. Such young scholars are awarded a one time monetary grant of Rs. 1,00,000/- apart from a Sanad and a Shawl.

6.7 SCHEME OF PRODUCTION OF SANSKRIT LITERATURE

The Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan extends financial assistance to registered Organisations as well as individuals who are authors, editors, translators or those who intend to publish the book in question and hold the copyright thereof for bringing out Sanskrit based books like reference books, original writing, research thesis, translations, descriptive catalogue of manuscripts, critical edition, reprint edition of rare out of print books and any other kind of publication as may be individually accepted as conducive to the promotion of Sanskrit language and literature. The assistance under the scheme is sanctioned to a maximum of 80% of the actual cost of production in case of original writing and a maximum of 50% in case of research thesis. However, for descriptive catalogue of rare manuscripts the assistance may be upto 100% of the expenditure.

The applicants have to apply for publication grant in a prescribed application form along with estimated cost of production from two different printers and about thirty five pages of the proposed work. The specimen pages so received are submitted to the experts for their opinion on utility of the work. The proposal and the expert opinion are placed before the Grants in Aid Committee for making necessary recommendations. Applicants of approved proposals have to publish the work within a period of two years from the date of sanction order. On printing, a dummy copy of the work and printers bill are scrutinised by an expert agency; who works out actual cost of production. On that basis, price per copy is fixed according to a set formula and intimated to the applicant along with actual sanctioned grant. The applicants have to supply a number of copies of the work; as the case may be, to listed libraries by post free of cost in lieu of the grant. The Sansthan reimburses postal charges and also releases the sanctioned grant. In campus. Lease of 99 years in favour of the institutions will also be acceptable;

- (iv) The registered Parent Body applying for recognition and financial assistance under this scheme in future would have to deposit in a Fixed Deposit Account a sum of at least Rs. 2.00 Lakh. However, the institutions already receiving assistance under the old scheme which have deposited Rs.1 Lakh in favour of the Mahavidyalaya/Shodha Sansthan would be exempted from this condition;
- (v) The Mahavidyalaya/Shodha Sansthan should be affiliated either to a University duly set up by an enactment of the Central Government or a State Government or to the Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan;
- (vi) The Mahavidyalaya should have a student strength of not less than 50, a Shodha Sansthan should have not less than 12 active researchers.

On receipt of application for recognition, the Govt. would cause an on the spot inspection and assessment to be made through an Expert Committee and convey its decision to the applicant organisation about recognition. This would be followed by screening of the existing staff of the institution by a Screening Committee specially constituted for the purpose.

All the recognised Sanskrit Mahavidyalayas/ Shodha Sansthans will be eligible to be considered for financial assistance under this scheme provided that they undertake to abide by the conditions enumerated in this scheme.

In addition, they will also have to comply with the conditions regarding the pattern and composition of management committee, its functions, staff pattern, applicable grant etc. as envisaged in the scheme.

A list of Adarsh Sanskrit Mahavidyalayas/Shodh Sansthans in receipt of annual grant of the Sansthan is placed at Annexure—L.

6.10 SCHEME FOR THE AWARD OF RESEARCH AND POST MATRIC SCHOLARSHIP

Under the scheme, scholarships are awarded to regular students of +2 system of education,

Graduate, Post graduate and equivalent courses of traditional stream and Research leading to Ph.D. or equivalent degree to study Sanskrit including Pali and Prakrit languages as a subject. The number of scholarships awarded every year depends upon availability of funds. 15% and 7.5% number of scholarships are reserved for SC and ST category of students respectively.

Candidates having passed qualifying examination with at least 50% marks in Sanskrit are eligible for such scholarships. The qualifying condition of percentage of marks can, however, be relaxed to 45% in case of reserved category candidates. The aspirant eligible students are required to submit their applications for award of scholarship to the Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan (Deemed University) through the institutions in which they intend to prosecute their studies/research. These scholarships are awarded on the basis of recommendations made by a selection committee constituted for the purpose. Scholarships for the students upto Post graduate course level are tenable for one academic year of 10 months starting from 1st July upto 20th April of next year. Since these are awarded on the basis of annual examination results, the students have to apply afresh every year. Research scholarship is awarded for two full years and second year's scholarship is awarded on receipt of utilisation certificate and progress report on the work done by the candidate.

Candidate in receipt of any scholarship from any other institution or engaged in any remunerative job during the tenure of scholarship or takes to study of any other course which does not provide for the study of Sanskrit is disqualified from receiving the scholarships. Each candidate is required to certify all qualifying conditions.

Rates of scholarship for different courses of study are as under:-

- (i) +2 and equivalent courses with Sanskrit as a subject Rs. 100/- p.m.
- (ii) B.A./ B.A. (Hon.) and equivalent where three year degree course is prevalent with Sanskrit Rs. 175/- p.m.
- (iii) M.A. in Sanskrit/ Pali/ Prakrit and equivalent Rs. 200/- p.m.
- (iv) Ph. D. and equivalent with Sanskrit/Pali/ Prakrit Rs. 400/- p.m. + Rs. 500/- per annum for two years as contingent grant.
