

Bauddha Darshan
Shastri Second Year
Paper VI

Learning outcomes -

3rd Sem

- This paper enjoins a sentient being to follow right notion in place of wrong notion. This is very significant for students of Buddhism in particular and common students in general.
- The paper says follow Anitya in place of Nitya and understand Duhkha in relation to Sukha.
- Furthermore, the text Chatuhshataka states that one should realize Anatma in place of Atamavada. Thus, students will know the subtle philosophy of Buddhism in an Anuloma-Viloma way.

4th Sem

- This paper is the continuation of earlier paper, which is based on the Madhyamika text titled “Chatuhshataka”. Herein, the conduct of Bodhisattva and destruction of Kleshas are lively illustrated. It is very useful for students.
- The students will know the procedures to destroy attachments with the self, parents, wife, extended family, village, district, state, country and finally world.
- It is pertinent to note that in this paper it is vividly discussed dos and don`ts of a student that is absolutely beneficial for students.
